What Is the Tree of Life in the Bible?

The River and Tree of Life - Revelation 22:1-3

Then the angel showed me the river of the water of life, bright as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb through the middle of the street of the city; also, on either side of the river, the tree of life with its twelve kinds of fruit, yielding its fruit each month. The leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations. No longer will there be anything accursed, but the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and his servants will worship him.

Here the "Tree of Life" is a symbol of Christ Himself, giving immortality. It fulfills the tree of life in Paradise and the other tree of life, the Cross of the Savior, the tree of obedience (1 Peter 2:24), a tree of the curse (Galatians 3:13). But there is no more curse in the Holy City of heaven: a reversal of the curse of Genesis 3:16-19. The fruits and leaves of the tree are completely and universally therapeutic, reversing the effects of the fruit of the tree of disobedience (Genesis 3:6)

Jesus has power to help in time of trouble.

So we are always confident; even though we know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord we walk by faith, not by sight.

2 CORINTHIANS 5:6-7

Importance of the Tree of Life Today

Our tree of life is Jesus Christ, granting us immortality through His defeat of death on the cross. Because of the ancestral sin of Adam and Eve, we now have the knowledge of good and evil and the free will to choose between the life-giving Christ or the deadly pursuit of selfish passion. Christ resurrected the tree of life by His cross and granted everlasting life to mankind once again. "Then Jesus told his disciples, "If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me." (Matthew 16:24) To eat of the tree of life now is to follow Christ by bearing our cross in repentance and love for God.

"He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To the one who conquers I will grant to eat of the tree of life, which is in the paradise of God." (Revelation 2:7)

Tree of Life Summary

In conclusion, we can summarize the "Tree of Life" as Jesus Christ Himself! God is the source and support of life, apart from God we only find death.

"I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing." (John 15:5)

"Jesus said to him, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me." (John 14:6)

Something New is Being Born

by Anne-Marie Doecke

In church we are often reminded that we are children of the light and not of darkness. However, the peace that is supposed to come from truly believing this has often eluded me. My sense of my own darkness and incapacities has more times than not, sent me spiraling down into despair; certainly not peace. My melancholic nature can send a shadow over everything I see.

What is giving me peace at present, is to realize that Love can be where we least expect, in situations which we would much rather avoid and in those who are very different from ourselves. Conflict and despair may be the very doorway through which we need to walk for new life to emerge. The status quo may need to crumble and we do not find this easy.

We are often afraid of pain and darkness and want to stand at a distance from it like the Israelites did in Exodus 20, but Moses – the murderer and coward – drew near the thick darkness where Love was (v. 21). The person we least expect enters into what is holier than themselves. Only afterwards, at a distance and as time has gone by are most of us able to see a little of what has been birthed.

I think of Jesus the ‘Prince of Peace’ heading towards Jerusalem knowing he would surely die. Matthew reports he fell with his face to the ground: “Father, if it is possible, may this cup be taken from me. Yet not as I will but as you will” (Matt 26:39). This is a little like the Serenity prayer where we pray for acceptance of the things we cannot change. However, we who are recovering addicts of all descriptions would rather say, “I grant myself the ability to do the impossible, the determination to not change the things I can and the refusal to notice the distortion!”

We are the brothers and sisters of Jesus.

Our theme for Synod is, ‘One in the Spirit bound in peace’. We are bound together with Christ on the same journey he was on. Catholic priest Henri Nouwen said our death is our greatest gift. Maybe, as we lean into our dying as a church as we have known it, life and the peace that passes understanding is able to emerge. May each of us join in letting light shine out of darkness (Gen 1:2-4) for something new is being born!

The Six Crowns of Christ

The lyrics of Crown Him with Many Crowns touch on six different crowns that represent various aspects of who Christ is and what He has done.

Revelation 19: 12

His eyes are like blazing fire, and on his head are many crowns. He has a name written on him that no one knows but he himself.

The Crown of the Lamb Upon the Throne

This first crown signifies Christ's position as the Lamb of God exalted upon the throne in heaven, worthy of eternal praise. "Then I saw a Lamb, looking as if it had been slain, standing at the center of the throne." (Revelation 5:6)

The Crown of the Son of God and Son of Man

The second crown reflects Christ's dual nature as both fully divine and fully human, able to redeem mankind. "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God...The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us." (John 1:1,14)

The Crown of Love

The third crown embodies God's love demonstrated through Christ's sacrificial death to save humanity. "But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us." (Romans 5:8)

The Crown of Life

This crown represents Christ's power over death through His resurrection, granting eternal life. "Jesus said to her, 'I am the resurrection and the life. The one who believes in me will live, even though they die.'" (John 11:25)

The Crown of Peace

The fifth crown depicts Christ as the Prince of Peace, reconciling mankind with God. "For he himself is our peace, who has made the two groups one and has destroyed the barrier, the dividing wall of hostility." (Ephesians 2:14)

The Crown of Heaven

Finally, the sixth crown exalts the ascended Christ as Lord of Heaven, bestowing eternal life on the redeemed. "After he said this, he was taken up before their very eyes, and a cloud hid him from their sight." (Acts 1:9)

What do crowns represent in the Bible?

In the Bible, crowns are symbolic of power, victory, honor, and royalty. When Jesus is crowned, it represents His authority and kingship over all creation. Specific crowns mentioned in Scripture include the crown of life (James 1:12), righteousness (2 Timothy 4:8), glory (1 Peter 5:4), and rejoicing (Proverbs 14:24). 1 Corinthians 9:25 refers to an imperishable crown awarded to those who overcome trials. Revelation 19:12 describes Jesus with "many diadems" representing His supreme sovereignty. So crowns in general signify righteous dominion, while Jesus' many crowns point to His infinite reign as risen Lord of lords.
